

Gracious God, Giver of every good gift, source of life and love,

You bid us receive from you grace upon grace.

You invite us to commit ourselves to you, and to follow you in loving service.

You offer us a way of humility,

a way of compassion,

a way of love.

Yet, you do not insist,

You do not require,

You do not compel.

Instead, you alert us,

You warn us,

You excuse us.

You forgive us.

Either way, Thanks.
